Scavenger Hunt Race

Scavenger Hunt Relay Race is great for teams who want to integrate company training, policy, or company knowledge, as well as the development of co-worker relations. Help foster improved morale as teams learn to work together, cheer one another on, enjoy healthy competition, & learn more about their company's objectives, new policies, & other information in a fun way. Your facilitator & team captain will lead you through a series of relay races that happen concurrently while playing laser tag. Other fun elements are introduced during a scavenger hunt where teams are required to find hidden glow-in-the-dark items as well as unlocking the questions to reveal points or a challenge! This program works well when coupled with a company meeting or social event & will enhance co-worker relations.
